

WHITE HOUSE PHYSICIANS SILENT ON MOSES STATEMENT REGARD WILSON

Usual Bulletin Issued Detailing General Physical Conditions

Senator Moses Had Declared The President To Be Suffering From Cerebral Lesions

OFFICIAL WASHINGTON PERPLEXED

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—The statement of President Wilson's physicians issued at 12:30 p. m. today said "The President's condition remains the same as for the past several days. His temperature, with the exception of one day, respiration, and heart action are normal and have been so since the on-set of his relapse."

The statement was signed by Drs. Grayson, Stipp and Ruffin and was issued after a long consultation. The statement entered into greater detail than previous statements. The President continues to improve slowly and in a pinch would sign measures and take up other matters but his physicians do not wish to abandon the rest cure. Grayson stated again that should any alarming situation develop the public will be informed.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—On the grounds that the President is not in physical condition to attend to official duties the Senate Foreign Relations committee today delayed action indefinitely on two resolutions calling for information as to international matters.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—The longest conference of physicians since President Wilson became ill was held at the White House today. Dr. Grayson's regular morning statement issued at 10:00 a. m. was not made public until 12:30.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—America's two principal representatives at the peace conference—President Wilson and Col. House—were ill in bed today as an indirect result of their job in France. House arrived here yesterday aboard the Northern Pacific. He spent the entire six days of the trip from Brest in bed. After a brief interview with newspaper men he was taken to his home in an automobile. He said the only information he had concerning the President's illness was contained in official bulletins.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—President Wilson's illness was placed in an inexplicable category yesterday by the publication of a letter written by Senator George H. Moses, Republican of New Hampshire, and the editor of the White House officials, including Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson, to discuss its contents.

Senator Moses was not at home today, nor could he be located in any of the Commission yesterday afternoon the clubs. There is no doubt whatever that he wrote the letter, but there is doubt that he wrote it for publication. It was made public in the Saturday evening edition and in substance was made known to White House officials today.

Senator Moses says "The President has suffered some kind of a cerebral lesion, either during his speech at Pueblo or immediately thereafter, and one of the readily discernible results is a slight facial paralysis." He adds that the President may live, but as "he will not be any material force or factor in any."

The portion of Senator Moses' letter which refers to a cerebral lesion and the slight facial paralysis has been a common rumor in Washington for the past week. The President, it may be said, has suffered from time to time with a violent twitching of his face. This twitching has been a danger signal to Dr. Grayson for the past six years. He looks upon it as a sign of intense fatigue and has at times halted the President's activities.

It came during the western trip and the doctor ordered the trip abandoned. It continued for some time after the President returned, but later subsided. Whether the rest and quiet prescription has done away with it finally is not known. Meantime Dr. Grayson is confined to his bed and has to say to the meager bulletins that have been issued. When Jos. P. Tumulty, secretary to the President, is approached he refers to Dr. Grayson. Today it was the House that there

POTATO WART IS FOUND AT OSCEOLA

State Agents Double Efforts To Stamp Out Vegetable Disease in That Region

ETERNAL VIGILANCE NEEDED

A serious area of 'potato wart' infestation was found in Osceola Mills on Wednesday by inspectors of the U. S. department of agriculture. A suspicious case reported by Postmaster Brown was investigated and confirmed, and further search revealed other sections of the town to be infected. Much credit is due Mr. Brown for the co-operation and promptness in reporting the case.

The discovery is alarming in that heretofore the disease was not known to exist in Clearfield county. A great deal of publicity had been given the disease following its discovery in Hazleton and in Cambria county and it had been hoped that the disease would be confined to those localities. Now that it has been found here it is requested that the people of the county and district assist in ascertaining the extent of the new infested area by reporting suspicious infested cases to the county farm bureau and in helping the inspectors in every possible way.

Philipsburg, Clearfield, DuBois and their surrounding communities will be surveyed within the next few days. As in Osceola Mills, it is possible and perhaps probable that the "potato wart" disease will be found in garden plots in Philipsburg as well as in farm patches in the surrounding region.

The wart parasite may be carried into clean soil (1) by drainage water from infested fields, (2) by the distribution of infested soil as an agricultural implement or on the feet of men or animals (3) by the use of manure from animals to which diseased tubers have been fed, (4) by garbage into which refuse from diseased tubers have been thrown, and especially (5) by the planting of diseased tubers or of tubers which have been grown in infested soil and carry the infection on their surfaces.

Inasmuch as there is no control of the disease save quarantine, it is of the utmost importance that the disease be prevented from spreading, and to this end every potato grower in this district should earnestly cooperate with the U. S. department of agriculture inspectors now at work in this section.

CLEARFIELD MAN HONORED

Commissioners' Clerk L. C. Norris attended the County Commissioners' state convention at Philadelphia last week. Mr. Norris has been a very active member of this association and at the Philadelphia meeting was unanimously chosen as Secretary of the Association for the ensuing year.

NOTICE

The regular monthly meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at the home of Mr. Burkett, Fourth and Locust streets, tomorrow evening at 7:30. As Mrs. Bouton the president is leaving town a new president will be elected at this meeting.

If the situation continues to gather the momentum, especially since publication of the Moses letter, it is believed certain that a detailed statement will have to be forthcoming from the White House.

LETTER TO EDITOR FLEADS FOR ORGANIZED CHARITY TO AID ALL

October 11, 1919

Editor of The Progress.

Our attention was attracted to a communication in your issue of Thursday last written by a tuberculous patient and calling "our people on Clearfield to look after some of these cases as well as to help the Jewish people."

To those who are actively in touch with this class of cases it is with something of chagrin that we read a letter such as this from one for whom so much has been done. We know it to be a fact that thru the local dispensary for tuberculosis this man and his family have been completely fitted out with clothing, supplies and even railway transportation in order that they may go where they could be properly cared for. Rather than submit to necessary discipline all this attention and provision has been to no advantage and they continue to live under conditions that were largely the cause of their affliction.

The reference to "lots of people who need help in our town" is altogether too general to be of any significance from such a source. This man calls for help but is unwilling to help himself or follow directions laid down for him by those who know better than he does what is good for him.

Many may be moved to sympathy by such an appeal and it is for that reason that I ask your indulgence for this expression. Our community is charitably inclined and there are very few cases of real need that are not taken proper care of by one or the other of our organizations engaged in that sort of work.

Many of our good women and men are overzealous at times in their efforts to relieve suffering and as a result are grossly imposed upon by unscrupulous ones. Their energies are misdirected and let us plead for a response to a call for organized charity work which is soon to be made whereby through proper investigation and understanding our relief measures may be applied where they will be most effective.

Very truly yours,

PRESIDENT'S BOOMLETS

By L. C. MARTIN

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—Senator Hiram Johnson's reception in the middle west, as he toured in opposition to the League of Nations, has set republican tongues wagging anew in house and senate cloakrooms, to the effect that Johnson is going to prove a mighty formidable climber to the G. O. P. presidential nomination that is to be handed to somebody the coming summer.

Johnson, of course, has been regarded all along as having only an "outside chance" because the standard leaders of the party find his progressivism unacceptable.

But now the talk goes, there is reason to believe that Johnson's enthusiastic greeting in the middle west is but one evidence that whether they like him or not, republican leaders will have to give a respectful ear to Johnson's claims.

There is Johnson's popularity among American soldiers, for one thing. The soldier vote all the political wisecracks here say, is going pretty far towards deciding who will be the next president. Also, they assert, the soldiers will not vote for another soldier. Pershing and Leonard Wood therefore, won't do if this sort of reasoning is correct.

But Johnson, many republicans here believe, can get the soldier vote, because he has won popularity among them by his fight to bring American boys out of Russia and Europe.

Evidence that this is true is submitted by his friends in the form of polls taken aboard returning transports. In half a dozen such polls, where the soldiers voted for anyone they fancied, Johnson's name led on the rest. The soldiers represent practically every state.

Again, it is whispered that Lodge, Knox and other conservative leaders they will be most effective.

Can we not all understand that the poor and needy, the sick and afflicted, are merely social conditions or the result thereof, which, just as truly as with any disease of the body, cannot be permanently cured unless the underlying cause of the ailment is discovered and removed? Without finding out what the cause is then, we apply repeated symptomatic or surgical relief which is merely temporary and we soon have the same thing to do over. That is certainly not working along intelligent lines.

Why should we, because we see some one sickly looking, pale, dirty and undernourished, venture to diagnosing it a case of tuberculosis when local and state health departments furnish a complete means for such a diagnosis for the asking?

Why should we, if we are charged with the distribution of the charity of others, recklessly answer every appeal for assistance when we know there are facts about nearly all such cases available thru certain reliable agencies in our community whereby we can satisfy ourselves that each case is really deserving?

Why should not our charity inclined feel much more justified in supporting such energies when the work is done systematically?

Under such conditions why should we not receive our proper share of local Red Cross funds for local use as other communities do in pursuing public health and welfare work?

Charity begins at home and Clearfield will even be mindful that it is more blessed to give than to receive and extend the helping hand to all who are really needy and worthy. Our volunteer social service workers are to be congratulated on the modest manner in which they carry on their work. They merit your support and will be sure to have it when with better organization their work becomes more fruitful.

Very truly yours,

CLEARFIELD FELL DOWN LET US PICK HER UP

"BREAD BASKET CLUB" FORMED TO REDEEM "OLD TOWN" IN WORTHY CHARITABLE ENTERPRISE

MEMBERSHIP ONLY FIVE DOLLARS

Calling a spade a spade, the committee in charge of the Jewish Relief Fund have declared that Clearfield has fallen down on the quota assigned her. There is, however, time to pull ourselves out of the hole and the campaign has been extended until Wednesday evening in order to give everybody an opportunity to have a part in this needy cause.

Reports indicate that Clearfield, when all reports are in today, will be at least $2000 short of the mark and it is realized that a super effort must be made.

Many people who have already subscribed in substantial amounts, have indicated their willingness to "come again" in order to get out of the hole.

With this object in view there has been formed a "BREAD BASKET CLUB" which will be composed of men, women and children who have already subscribed but who, out of a sense of pride in Clearfield and a feeling of responsibility for starving babes, will join a $5 club to help put 'er across.

Look on page three for the club heading and see that your name is written there tomorrow. It costs only Five Dollars. Let's Go!

Remittances may be made to any bank or to the solicitors.

REPORTS ON SUSQUEHANNA RIVER NAVIGATION MAY HOLD SURPRISES

The Harrisburg Telegraph says: "Judging from the manner in which the National and State authorities are studying the possibilities of deepening the Susquehanna river from Harrisburg to tidewater from a business standpoint are going about things, there will be a report made one of these days that will be a surprise to the folks who have been the opinion that the scheme is impracticable. From what army engineers say, the use of modern explosives can provide a channel in the bed of the river which will permit of navigation the greater part of the year and as far as the technical side of the proposition goes it is believed that a method which will be within means available can be devised to cut a way in the rocks which form the base of the river and make the Susquehanna a succession of shallow pools. While this has been going on there have been studies made of the business that arises in the way of products and produce and of the share which water transportation may reasonably be considered as likely to get in competition with railroads in the present state of equipment. This is what is engaging the thoughts of the experts. The Susquehanna navigation possibilities, as has been pointed out in this column, publishing the Ten Table Gossip to have been studied three times, 1790, 1824-1835 and at present. The survey tomorrow as usual. We beg your indulgence."

It may be interesting to know that about the first coal to be shipped by rail from Clearfield was "stripped" and loaded on the Owens farm near the scene of the operation of the Evans Coal company. The evidences of this crude mining being visible and easily followed up until a few years ago.

NOTICE READERS

Mechanical troubles prevent our publishing the Ten Table Gossip to have been studied three times, 1790, 1824-1835 and at present. The survey tomorrow as usual. We beg your indulgence.

FORCES PRESS HARD FOR EBERT'S FALL

Rights and Lefts Plan Coup Against Government For Benefit of Monarchists.

CARL D. GROAT

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
BERLIN, (By Mail)—A mighty effort to destroy the Ebert-Bauer-Kunze government is under way.

The press admits it, the right and left are quite sure about it and the government itself knows that tremendous forces are pressing and pulling in a titanic effort to establish a new regime.

The government press is striving to create a sentiment for a "dictatorship of the middle parties" against the conservative forces which are pushing either for monarchy or something closely reactionary, and the left parties are doing their utmost to restore the radicalism of last November.

At present it appears to the best observers to be more or less of a toss-up as to the source of the next coup; but there is a distinct impression that the late fall or early winter—with its critical industrial situation—will be seized upon by the malcontents of right and left as a medium for their overthrow attempts.

Erwin Barth, editor of Vorwaerts, writes in the socialist weekly, Die Glocke, "There is no man in Germany who is content with the situation, and each is right in his discontentment. We all know that, since the days of the revolution, we have day by day become poorer; that the foreign nations have no confidence in Germany; that the moral bewilderment progresses daily and that dishonesty and dissimulation to work control the situation both in political and economic things."

All is talk, talk, talk, according to Barth, who would see Germany devoted to rebuilding—using all the means in her power, even to brutal power, to attain the one needed end of reconstruction.

Dilating on Barth's article the Tagliche Rundschau draws the conclusion that the rebuilding, the restoration of order, work and peace can come only from "other sides"—namely the right—rather than from the middle, which it contends, has made a failure; or from the left which participated in the November revolution.

At the same time, the Rundschau says that the left is preparing "under the eyes of the administration" to stage another revolution.

There are adequate proofs at hand that the left's method at present is a bloodless program. The communists would overturn the government through a general strike. But, the communists and the independents are divided among themselves, and are not presenting the strong front which many credit them with doing.

On the other hand, the right has gathered funds for a strong campaign. It is behind the anti-Semitic propaganda which is being used as a means of stirring up sufficient internal trouble to cause an overthrow of the government.

Meantime, the government and the proponents of a "dictatorship of the middle" are clinging on desperately, to weather the winter, especially that the method of taking in the social democrats.

The Essex Is With Us

We Will Sell This New Light Weight Quality Car. Our Full Endorsement is Added to All That Everyone Says for it

Come and Ride In It

When the Essex made its first appearance we in common with other dealers were a bit skeptical.

Curiosity led us to take a ride in the Essex. That was enough. The way the Essex rode over rough roads and pavements was amazing to us with our accustomed idea of light car riding qualities.

But when the Essex started to climb hills our admiration was finally and completely won. It was not necessary to show us how quickly the Essex accelerated or how easily it answered every touch of the wheel. It was not necessary for the demonstrator to say a word. The Essex had us at its feet.

The beauty of the Essex design and the trimness of its lines only added to our enthusiasm. In every respect the Essex was the equal of cars many times its cost.

So we decided to get the Essex representation if it were possible. It was not an easy task. The quick popularity of the Essex led other dealers to also want to sell the Essex. The Essex people chose only those dealers who meet the highest standards. We had to show our qualifications. At last we received word that we were to have the Essex for this territory.

An Essex is now at our store. We have a demonstrating car. Come, see, and ride in it. You will be just as enthusiastic about this new type fine car as we were. It combines every advantage of light car economy and flexibility with large car comfort and endurance. Be sure and ride in it.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS CURWENSVILLE

Curwensville people were both surprised and sorry to read of the death of John Smith in The Progress the other day as many had not even learned of his illness. John Smith lived in Curwensville a good many years and received his education in the public schools of this town. He had many friends here prior to his removal to Clearfield.

A two months old child of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jones died last Thursday evening after a short illness.

The cake walk held in the Catholic church last Saturday evening was quite well attended despite the inclement weather. Everything passed off satisfactorily and cakes were distributed liberally to those who were entitled to the same. The excellent music was one of the pleasing features of the entertainment.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Russell Decker on the 8th inst. a young son.

G. B. Hoover, one of the town's oldest residents is ill at his home on George street. "Dad's" many friends hope to see him out and around again within the next few days.

Bethesda lodge No. 821, I. O. O. F., has started the ball a rolling and expect to increase the membership rapidly now since the cooler weather has started in. Last Saturday evening a class of four were instructed in the mysteries of the first degree.

An interesting and humorous lawsuit was tried before Justice Dale last Friday evening, in which four Italian ladies signed promiscuously. They all reside on the south side of Anderson creek and for a week or more have made more or less disturbance by their wrangling and disorderly conduct, and other residents were forced to lay in a complaint, hence Chief Clark made a thorough investigation and from the evidence that he could obtain caused their arrest. After hearing the evidence in full Justice Dale assessed each with a fine of five dollars and cost. Some of the evidence rendered in behalf of the defendants was rather laughable to the large crowd that had assembled to hear the case.

Miss Laura Troy and Karl Dotz tied themselves over to Mount Union one day last week and were united in marriage by the Rev. Max Lantz, pastor of the M. E. church at that place. The young folks will make their home in Curwensville for the present.

The patrol of the Boy Scouts of this town contributed the sum of five dollars to the Jewish relief fund. Last week each scout was presented with a pocket piece made from captured German cannon, for patriotic service rendered in behalf of the liberty loans.

A dinner social was held by the ladies of the Grace Lutheran church last Friday evening, in which genuine home made candy was on sale.

KICKING SOON CEASED

The telephone lines between Clearfield and Curwensville were put out of commission yesterday afternoon by a blast on the state road at Hogback. As a result a whole lot of people were inconvenienced, but all who had attempted to make Hogback on high quit kicking instantly when they learned the cause of the trouble. Each and everyone had blasted Hogback verbally many times previous and were only sorry they could not make the dirt and rocks fly like that cigarette did.

WILL ATTEMPT TO PROPAGATE THE BEAVER

First beaver to be distributed in the state game preserves will be received next month, according to plans being made by the game officials. Several colonies have been bought and the animals will be turned loose in what are considered ideal surroundings. Test will be made during the first year.

Edgar Markle, of Altoona, spent Sunday with Clearfield friends.

ATTENTION F. O. E. MEMBERS

Important business that will be of interest to the members will be transacted at the next regular session of the Aerie, Wednesday evening, October 15th, 1919. There will also be an election of a trustee to fill an unexpired term.

ELSIE FERGUSON IN

Rose of the World

The only heart that truly loves is that of woman. Men are brave and true—they die for their ideals—but woman's love, percolating thru her heart to all the world, has no peer on earth, once it is surely placed. This is the theme of "ROSE OF THE WORLD," and, enhanced by ELSIE FERGUSON'S personality, this exquisite, powerful picture will hold you spell-bound.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 14TH

Second showing of CHARLIE CHAPLIN in

Shoulder Arms

Here is the funniest comedy you will ever see. In his second Million Dollar comedy, Chaplin satirizes the tragic phases of the experience of an average doughboy, from the "rookie" squad, until he becomes a full-fledged jaunt terror to the Hun. It is the best comedy ever produced. Also THEDA BARA in

The Siren's Song

and HAROLD LOCKWOOD in

A Man of Honor

This is the last picture made by Harold Lockwood before his death but it was not released until this fall. This is a pleasing romance by Henry Hitchcock Webster, set in tropical surroundings, wherein a man of honor snatches success from disaster. "A MAN OF HONOR" and "SHOULDER ARMS" surely make an unbeatable combination.

Why worry when you still can have a smile? Murray and Mack, one of the oldest teams on the stage, come here Thursday with a bright, clever, musical comedy, with pretty girls, beautiful costumes, and luscious music. "I'LL SAY SO" comes direct from Philadelphia.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 17TH

The Turn in the Road

by King Vidor

Who and what is God? Does He visit upon man afflictions as well as blessings? Paul Perry's faith in the orthodox God was blasted when his young wife died, and he went in search of the true God and sank to the depths of degradation. How his own child led him into the light of truth is told in a drama of pathos and humor, that stirs the deepest emotions. A beautiful story of the power of love over hate and the simple faith of a child that overcame fear and unbelief.

Look! Here is the globe spread out flat before your eyes. See those stars? Every star shows where a U. S. Navy ship was on September 2nd, 1919. The Navy travels the Seven Seas.

Don't you want to see the World?

ROMANCE is calling to you! Strange and smiling foreign lands are beckoning to you. Shove off and see the world!

Learn to "parley-vo" in gay Patee. See the bull-fights in Panama. See surf-riding on the beach of Waikiki.

Learn the lure that comes with the swish and swirl of the good salt sea. Eat well—free; dress well—free; sleep clean—free; and look 'em all straight in the eye—British, French, Chinese, Japanese, Spaniards, Egyptians, Algerians and all manner of people.

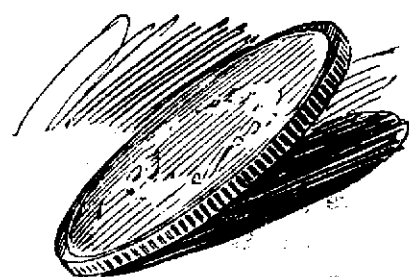

Come! Be a real man of the world. See the world. See it with the red-blooded, hard-working, hard-playing men of the U. S. Navy.

Pay begins the day you join. On board ship a man is always learning. Trade schools develop skill, industry and business ability. Thirty days care-free holiday each year with full pay. The food is good. First uniform outfit is furnished free. Promotion is unlimited for men of brains. You can enlist for two years and come out broader, stronger and abler.

Is your time worth 10 cents an hour?

"I would like to send my washing to the laundry but I can not afford it."

In the days before women caught the larger vision of their role in life, this used to be said often. Women never thought of their time as having a money value. But it is different today. Women now know that their time is worth something.

Usually it requires from 10 to 15 hours to complete the family washing. If you value your time at only 10 cents an hour, you spend from $1.00 to $1.50 worth of it on your family washing. And if you value your time at 20 cents an hour—which certainly wouldn't be excessive, you spend from $2.00 to $3.00 worth of it on washday. This does not include other costs like wear on yourself and soaps, powders and fuel.

Why continue this wastage of self? Ours is an economical, cloth-saving laundry method. A plant, airy and bright with sunshine. Employees healthy and capable. Soft water and fluffy suds for your clothes. Ironing in a modern, steam-heated way that gives a beautiful, glossy finish to your things.

If washday has vexed you in the past, gain freedom in the future by sending your family bundle to us.

A telephone call will bring our driver.

THIS COLUMN FOR BOYS AND GIRLS AND PARENTS

"How Can I Write a Story?"

By IRENE J. CLEAVES
Francis W. Parker School

Frank's Story
"I was four years old, and pranced gaily around with my first balloon, my shimmering, delicate, wonderful, tugging, first balloon. I wondered what it was made of. What made it pull up when everything else pulls down? Was there a fairy inside of it? How pretty it was! My being gave was on it, but alas, my careless hand forgot to clutch the string. My beloved balloon slipped out of my hold. Lazily it drifted up, up, up. It floated away beyond the reach of my chubby

The Other Stories
All the boys and girls in Frank's class wrote stories describing things that happened when they were small. When you read Frank's story, you can see some of the things the children tried to do.

First, they tried to get a good subject. Everyone has seen his first balloon burst and knows how Frank felt.

Second, they left out everything that did not help the main point. Frank's story began when he got the balloon in his hand, and stopped when it burst.

Third, they tried to use words that made pictures, like "pranced," "tugged," "shimmering," "tugging."

Fourth, they tried to use a balanced sentence occasionally, like the last one.

These four things help make a good story. "You try it."

JORDAN'S

Wood Folk to Meet, and Avoid

By ADELIA BELLE BEARD

In the woods the RACCOON lives and makes his home. You may have seen one after he had been killed, but what you want to do is to see him very much alive, shuffling bear-like over the dry leaves and pine needles. Like many other wild animals the raccoon usually chooses night for his rambles, but sometimes he can be seen by day when not asleep in a hawk's or crow's nest, or flattened out on a strong tree branch.

He is about the size of a fox terrier. His nose is pointed and he has bright, intelligent eyes. The long hair that covers him is grizzly and yellowish, darker on his back. He has a whitish face with black rings around his eyes and black on his cheeks. There are also black strongly marked rings around his bushy tail. He uses his forepaws like hands, grasping his food like a monkey.

Anything he finds is good enough for him to eat, animal or vegetable. He likes nuts, cherries, wild grapes, bugs, birds or reptiles. Some of his habits are very funny and interesting to observe. One thing he cannot resist doing is to mount every fallen tree in his path and run its whole length. When really cold weather comes, he and his family curl up together in a hollow tree, but on warm days they get out again. Tame a raccoon and he will make a playful and amusing pet.

There is another little animal of the woods, beautiful but best admired from a distance. It bears the ugly name of SKUNK, but its name and the suffocating odor of its liquid it throws on any creature of which it is afraid, are the only ugly things about it, for it is gentle and easily tamed. It is usually about two feet in length, and strongly marked black and white, the marks differing in different localities. The hair is long and the tail like a plume.

Foley's Honey and Tar COMPOUND

STOPS THAT DISTRESSING COUGH—checks it quickly and surely, clears the throat of phlegm and mucus, and coats the raw, inflamed surfaces with a healing, soothing medicine.

Don't Cough Until Weak

"I am an old lady, 75 years old, and I had a very bad cough from having a gripe. I thought it a good time to try Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and I sent and got a bottle, and it stopped my cough, and I got better. So now I am around the house again."

LOYAL LEGION NOW HAS 5000 POSTS

More than 5,000 local posts of the American Legion are now formed in the United States. Reports from State organizations compiled at National Headquarters, 19 West 44th street, New York, up to September 30th, show that on that date there were 5,001 posts throughout the country, with an approximate membership of 750,000 former soldiers, sailors and marines. These figures do not include complete returns from the national membership drive for 1,000,000 members. It is expected that 6,000 local posts will be organized by American Legion Day, November 11th, when the first National Convention of the Legion will be held in Minneapolis.

Among the states, New York still maintains the lead for the largest number of posts. It has 503. Massachusetts is second with 415 posts and Pennsylvania third, with 330. Minnesota has 241 posts, Illinois 232 and Iowa 222. Michigan is next with 178. New Jersey has 167, Ohio and Nebraska, 158 each, Missouri 143, Indiana 111, and California 110.

C. S. N. S. DEFEATED BY C. H. S. TEAM HERE SATURDAY

Old Jupiter Pluvius did his best to drown the football spirit Saturday by keeping up a continuous drizzle all day, but his efforts met with stigmata success, and when the two teams lined up on the soggy grid there was a good sized crowd present to cheer them on. The resulting game amply repaid the spectators for the momentary discomfort.

Lock Haven came up here to wipe C. H. S. off the Normal school football map, and had a bunch of hokies in their lineup who promised to accomplish that little trick. But Coach Heisey had provided his "six cylinder Flivver" with mud chains, and when those Normal school chaps hit that line it never quivered. C. H. S. assumed the offensive and within five minutes after the ball had been put into play they had pushed Lock Haven down the field for the first goal. The visitors were unable to score a single point, but the local squad made another goal, ending the game with a score of 13 to 0.

The line up of the two teams was as follows:

FORCES PRESS HARD FOR EBERT'S FALL

Rights and Lefts Plan Coup Against Government For Benefit of Monarchists.

CARL D. GROAT

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
BERLIN, (By Mail)—A mighty effort to destroy the Ebert-Bauer-Kunze government is under way.

The press admits it, the right and left are quite plain about it and the government itself knows that tremendous forces are pressing and pulling in a titanic effort to establish a new regime.

The government press is striving to create a sentiment for a "dictatorship of the middle parties" while the conservative press quite frankly either lean for monarchy or something closely reactionary, and the left papers are doing their utmost to restore the radicalism of last November.

At present it appears to the best observers to be more or less of a toss-up as to the source of the next coup; but there is a distinct impression that the late fall or early winter—with its critical industrial situation—will be seized upon by the malcontents of right and left as a medium for their overthrow attempts.

Erwin Barth, editor of Vorwaerts, writes in the socialist weekly, Die Glocke, "There is no man in Germany who is content with the situation, and each is right in his discontentment. We all know that, since the days of the revolution, we have day by day become poorer; that the foreign nations have no confidence in Germany; that the moral bewilderment progresses daily and that dishonesty and dissimulation to work control the situation both in political and economic things."

All is talk, talk, talk, according to Barth, who would see Germany devoted to rebuilding—using all the means in her power, even to brutal power, to attain the one needed end of reconstruction.

Dilating on Barth's article the Tagliche Rundschau draws the conclusion that the rebuilding, the restoration of order, work and peace can come only from "other sides"—namely the right—rather than from the middle, which it contends, has made a failure; or from the left which participated in the November revolution.

At the same time, the Rundschau says that the left is preparing "under the eyes of the administration" to stage another revolution.

There are adequate proofs at hand that the left's method at present is a bloodless program. The communists would overturn the government through a general strike. But, the communists and the independents are divided among themselves, and are not presenting the strong front which many credit them with doing.

On the other hand, the right has gathered funds for a strong campaign. It is behind the anti-Semitic propaganda which is being used as a means of stirring up sufficient internal trouble to cause an overthrow of the government.

Meantime, the government and the proponents of a "dictatorship of the middle" are clinging on desperately, to weather the winter, especially that the method of taking in the social democrats.

The Essex Is With Us

We Will Sell This New Light Weight Quality Car. Our Full Endorsement is Added to All That Everyone Says for it

Come and Ride In It

When the Essex made its first appearance we in common with other dealers were a bit skeptical.

Curiosity led us to take a ride in the Essex. That was enough. The way the Essex rode over rough roads and pavements was amazing to us with our accustomed idea of light car riding qualities.

But when the Essex started to climb hills our admiration was finally and completely won. It was not necessary to show us how quickly the Essex accelerated or how easily it answered every touch of the wheel. It was not necessary for the demonstrator to say a word. The Essex had us at its feet.

The beauty of the Essex design and the trimness of its lines only added to our enthusiasm. In every respect the Essex was the equal of cars many times its cost.

So we decided to get the Essex representation if it were possible. It was not an easy task. The quick popularity of the Essex led other dealers to also want to sell the Essex. The Essex people chose only those dealers who meet the highest standards. We had to show our qualifications. At last we received word that we were to have the Essex for this territory.

An Essex is now at our store. We have a demonstrating car. Come, see, and ride in it. You will be just as enthusiastic about this new type fine car as we were. It combines every advantage of light car economy and flexibility with large car comfort and endurance. Be sure and ride in it.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

CURWENSVILLE

Curwensville people were both surprised and sorry to read of the death of John Smith in The Progress the other day as many had not even learned of his illness. John Smith lived in Curwensville a good many years and received his education in the public schools of this town. He had many friends here prior to his removal to Clearfield.

A two months old child of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jones died last Thursday evening after a short illness.

The cake walk held in the Catholic church last Saturday evening was quite well attended despite the inclement weather. Everything passed off satisfactorily and cakes were distributed liberally to those who were entitled to the same. The excellent music was one of the pleasing features of the entertainment.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Russell Decker on the 8th inst. a young son.

G. B. Hoover, one of the town's oldest residents is ill at his home on George street. "Dad's" many friends hope to see him out and around again within the next few days.

Bethesda lodge No. 821, I. O. O. F., has started the ball a rolling and expect to increase the membership rapidly now since the cooler weather has started in. Last Saturday evening a class of four were instructed in the mysteries of the first degree.

An interesting and humorous lawsuit was tried before Justice Dale last Friday evening, in which four Italian ladies signed promiscuously. They all reside on the south side of Anderson creek and for a week or more have made more or less disturbance by their wrangling and disorderly conduct, and other residents were forced to lay in a complaint, hence Chief Clark made a thorough investigation and from the evidence that he could obtain caused their arrest. After hearing the evidence in full Justice Dale assessed each with a fine of five dollars and cost. Some of the evidence rendered in behalf of the defendants was rather laughable to the large crowd that had assembled to hear the case.

Miss Laura Troy and Karl Dotz hied themselves over to Mount Union one day last week and were united in marriage by the Rev. Max Lantz, pastor of the M. E. church at that place. The young folks will make their home in Curwensville for the present.

The patrol of the Boy Scouts of this town contributed the sum of five dollars to the Jewish relief fund. Last week each scout was presented with a pocket piece made from captured German cannon, for patriotic service rendered in behalf of the liberty loans.

A dinner social was held by the ladies of the Grace Lutheran church last Friday evening, in which genuine home made candy was on sale.

The telephone lines between Clearfield and Curwensville were put out of commission yesterday afternoon by a blast on the state road at Hogback. As a result a whole lot of people were inconvenienced, but all who had attempted to make Hogback on high quit kicking instantly when they learned the cause of the trouble. Each and everyone had blasted Hogback verbally many times previous and were only sorry they could not make the dirt and rocks fly like that cigarette did.

WILL ATTEMPT TO PROPAGATE THE BEAVER

First beaver to be distributed in the state game preserves will be received next month, according to plans being made by the game officials. Several colonies have been bought and the animals will be turned loose in what are considered ideal surroundings. Test will be made during the first year.

Is your time worth 10 cents an hour?

"I would like to send my washing to the laundry but I can not afford it."

In the days before women caught the larger vision of their role in life, this used to be said often. Women never thought of their time as having a money value. But it is different today. Women now know that their time is worth something.

Usually it requires from 10 to 15 hours to complete the family washing. If you value your time at only 10 cents an hour, you spend from $1.00 to $1.50 worth of it on your family washing. And if you value your time at 20 cents an hour—which certainly wouldn't be excessive, you spend from $2.00 to $3.00 worth of it on washday. This does not include other costs like wear on yourself and soaps, powders and fuel.

Why continue this wastage of self? Ours is an economical, cloth-saving laundry method. A plant, airy and bright with sunshine. Employees healthy and capable. Soft water and fluffy suds for your clothes. Ironing in a modern, steam-heated way that gives a beautiful, glossy finish to your things.

If washday has vexed you in the past, gain freedom in the future by sending your family bundle to us. A telephone call will bring our driver.

"How Can I Write a Story?"
By IRENE J. CLEAVES
Francis W. Parker School

Frank's Story
"I was four years old, and pranced gaily around with my first balloon, my shimmering, delicate, wonderful, tugging, first balloon. I wondered what it was made of. What made it pull up when everything else pulls down? Was there a fairy inside of it? How pretty it was! My being gave was on it, but alas, my careless hand forgot to clutch the string. My beloved balloon slipped out of my hold. Lazily it drifted up, up, up. It floated away beyond the reach of my chubby fingers. But wouldn't it ever stop? If I were a bird I could catch it. Finally the string got tangled among the interlacing branches in the top of a tree. There it danced wildly in the strong wind. It looked like a small red dot. Suddenly a sharp gust drove it hard against a twig. Pop! The balloon burst! All that was left was a little red rag hanging in the tree, and a little howling boy on the ground below."

The Other Stories
All the boys and girls in Frank's class wrote stories describing things that happened when they were small. When you read Frank's story, you can see some of the things the children tried to do.

First, they tried to get a good subject. Everyone has seen his first balloon burst and knows how Frank felt. Second, they left out everything that did not help the main point. Frank's story began when he got the balloon in his hand, and stopped when it burst.

Third, they tried to use words that made pictures, like "pranced," "tugged," "shimmering," "tugging."

Fourth, they tried to use a balanced sentence occasionally, like the last one. These four things help make a good story. "You try it."

JORDAN'S

Wood Folk to Meet, and Avoid

By ADELIA BELLE BEARD

In the woods the RACCOON lives and makes his home. You may have seen one after he had been killed, but what you want to do is to see him very much alive, shuffling bear-like over the dry leaves and pine needles. Like many other wild animals the raccoon usually chooses night for his rambles, but sometimes he can be seen by day when not asleep in a hawk's or crow's nest, or flattened out on a strong tree branch.

He is about the size of a fox terrier. His nose is pointed and he has bright, intelligent eyes. The long hair that covers him is grizzled and yellowish, darker on his back. He has a whitish face with black rings around his eyes and black on his cheeks. There are also black strongly marked rings around his bushy tail. He uses his forepaws like hands, grasping his food like a monkey.

Anything he finds is good enough for him to eat, animal or vegetable. He likes nuts, cherries, wild grapes, bugs, birds or reptiles. Some of his habits are very funny and interesting to observe. One thing he cannot resist doing is to mount every fallen tree in his path and run its whole length. When really cold weather comes, he and his family curl up together in a hollow tree, but on warm days they get out again. Tame a raccoon and he will make a playful and amusing pet.

There is another little animal of the woods, beautiful but best admired from a distance. It bears the ugly name of SKUNK, but its name and the suffocating odor of its liquid it throws on any creature of which it is afraid, are the only ugly things about it, for it is gentle and easily tamed. It is usually about two feet in length, and strongly marked black and white, the marks differing in different localities. The hair is long and the tail like a plume.

"I am an old lady, 75 years old, and I had a very bad cough from having a gripe. I thought it a good time to try Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and I sent and got a bottle, and it stopped my cough, and I got better. So now I am around the house again."

LOYAL LEGION NOW HAS 5000 POSTS

More than 5,000 local posts of the American Legion are now formed in the United States. Reports from State organizations compiled at National Headquarters, 19 West 44th street, New York, up to September 30th, show that on that date there were 5,001 posts throughout the country, with an approximate membership of 750,000 former soldiers, sailors and marines. These figures do not include complete returns from the national membership drive for 1,000,000 members. It is expected that 6,000 local posts will be organized by American Legion Day, November 11th, when the first National Convention of the Legion will be held in Minneapolis.

Among the states, New York still maintains the lead for the largest number of posts. It has 503. Massachusetts is second with 415 posts and Pennsylvania third, with 330. Minnesota has 241 posts, Illinois 232 and Iowa 222. Michigan is next with 178. New Jersey has 167, Ohio and Nebraska, 158 each, Missouri 143, Indiana 111, and California 110.

C. S. N. S. DEFEATED BY C. H. S. TEAM HERE SATURDAY

Old Jupiter Pluvius did his best to drown the football spirit Saturday by keeping up a continuous drizzle all day, but his efforts met with stigmata success, and when the two teams lined up on the soggy grid there was a good sized crowd present to cheer them on. The resulting game amply repaid the spectators for the momentary discomfort.

Lock Haven came up here to wipe C. H. S. off the Normal school football map, and had a bunch of hokies in their lineup who promised to accomplish that little trick. But Coach Heisey had provided his "six cylinder Flivver" with mud chains, and when those Normal school chaps hit that line it never quivered. C. H. S. assumed the offensive and within five minutes after the ball had been put into play they had pushed Lock Haven down the field for the first goal. The visitors were unable to score a single point, but the local squad made another goal, ending the game with a score of 13 to 0.

The line up of the two teams was as follows:

Lock Haven	LE	C. H. S.
Hannah	LT	B. Norris
Yarson	LG	Wright
L. Dively	LG	Bird
Condo	C.	Ammerman
Sturrgart	RG	Stephenson
Black	RF	Stann

B. Mitchell	QB	Flegel
